Cumulative voting instructions: If you elect cumulative voting for directors, do NOT mark the “For All”, “Withhold All” or “For All Except” boxes above. In the event any shareholder has elected to cumulate votes, California law and the Bylaws of this corporation provide for cumulative voting for directors. This means that each share held entitles the holder to cast a number of votes equaling the number of directors to be elected. The number of directors to be elected is eight (8). Thus, if a shareholder owns 100 shares, he or she may cast up to 800 votes. A shareholder may cast all of his or her votes for one candidate or distribute such votes among as many candidates as he or she deems appropriate.
